

A bus stop poster defaced "Budos Zsido" translates as "stinking Jew". The poster translates "Don't let Soros have the last laugh".

The first picture is from another Budapest bus stop, part of a separate campaign by Fidelitas, the youth wing of the governing Fidesz party. It depicts George Soros as a puppet-master controlling László Botka, the Socialist nominee for Prime Minister. Compare it with the second image of a cartoon from a Hungarian anti-Semitic publication in the 1930s.
